

GUIDELINES & INFORMATION

PLEIN AIR PAINT OUT & WET PAINT SALE SATURDAY, 15 JUNE 2012, 9A.M. – 5P.M.

Requirements:

Paintings must be plein air works completed on site at Forbes House Museum and/or Milton Hill.

The event is an un-juried event and exhibition. All mediums are welcome.

Check In:

Artists should check-in at (FHM) by 9a.m. on 15 June to receive an ID tag and information packet. Coffee and breakfast faire will be provided at the morning Check In; bottled water will be made available throughout the day.

Sale of Artworks:

Artists will bring their wet paintings to a specified location at 3:45p.m. A gallery reception, hosted by the Forbes House Museum, will take place from 4-5p.m. The artist agrees that all sales transacted during the event on June 15th are subject to a 20% museum commission.

Artists are welcome to interact with museum visitors to answer questions about their artwork.

Each artist must provide a means for displaying paintings.

Each artist is responsible for setting the price of his/her own paintings.

All sales of paintings will be processed at FHM.

Patrons purchasing a work of art will be asked to write two separate checks; one for 80% of the purchase price payable to the artist and 20% of the purchase price payable to FHM.

Each artist should provide some means for a buyer to safely transport wet artwork.

Unsold paintings are the property of the individual artist and must be taken from FHM by the close of the sale.

Each artist should bring their own lunch, snacks, drinks (other than bottled water), etc., for the day.

FHM offices will be open during the event.

Visual artists are welcome to take a complimentary tour of Forbes House Museum during their lunch break.

Bathrooms are available inside the Museum.
